

Retaining the preceding lemma's construction, let Q be the place into which the body next succeeds. The standard Prop. VI apparatus appears: draw QR parallel to SP and QT perpendicular to SP . Then add the parabola-specific ordinate — Qv parallel to the tangent, meeting the diameter PG at v and the distance SP at x . These lines let us measure the deflection QR against the geometry of the curve.